

Doyle Hayes, President, Pyper Products Corporation

Our success is directly related to the assistance we received from BCU. Pyper Products Corporation specializes in molding inserts into plastic applications. The facility, established in 1994, is located in Fort Custer Industrial Park. Primarily, we used their incubation services and later acquired reasonable financial assistance to sustain our business. In short, we would have found it difficult to survive without the resources we were able to receive from BCU.